Rebuilding Public Square

An exciting new project is starting in Humboldt. Local citizens have volunteered to be on the Rebuilding the Public Square steering committee. In January, the committee will begin an interview process to identify how Humboldt can build on its strengths and grow to become an even better place to live, work and raise a family. Later, the committee will host a town meeting "Community Conversation" to identify citizen priorities and resources to enable Humboldt to grow in areas of education, business, health & human services and local government. For more information, contact City Hall.

Reporting Gas Leaks

If you smell a gas leak, be sure to call City Hall and evacuate your house or business. City crews will come to your house or business to investigate and identify and correct the potential gas leak problem. After business hours or weekends, call the City water plant at 473-3131. Play it safe and let trained City personnel keep your house or business safe during this winter season.

City Junk Vehicle Laws

The City is beginning the process of educating the public about its new junk vehicle ordinances. If you have a vehicle that is not tagged or is inoperable, you need to remove the vehicle, park it in a garage or get it tagged and insured. Salvage yards must place fencing around such vehicles to protect the public from any possible injury. For more information, contact City Hall at (620) 473-3232.

City Applies for Home Repair Grant

Last fall, the City applied for a $300,000 Department of Housing grant to help citizens of moderate and lower incomes in Humboldt get financial assistance to repair or upgrade their homes. The City has not heard whether the grant will be awarded, but it encourages all citizens to make necessary repairs to weatherize their homes for the winter.

Applications are available through the SEK-CAP in Girard to get assistance in replacing leaky windows, poor insulation and other items that allows heat to escape their homes. For information call (620) 724-8030.

For more information regarding house or weatherization repairs, contact City Hall.

designated one way and no parking going west and south on New York and 11th street. Violators will be ticketed. Questions? Call the Police Department at (620) 473-2341.
